In Our Thoughts & Prayers

St. Mary's Message

Preparing for Next Sunday's Gospel

Sixteenth Sunday Ordinary Time "B"

Mark 6:30-34

"His heart was moved with pity for them."

Do I take the time to "report back" to Jesus?

How do I rest with Jesus?

How do I rest in Jesus?

How am I like a sheep without a shepherd?

Prayer: Lord Jesus, my Good Shepherd, help me see those moments in life when it is good for me to take time and rest in you. May I always be anxious to share my day with you. Amen

Preparing for Next Sunday's Petitions

~That God who appoints shepherds for His people may strengthen our Holy Father Francis and all the bishops with wisdom and love

~That through the justice of the Lord, Israel and all the earth may dwell in security

~That all who are far from Christ may be brought near to Him through His Blood

~That God may lead all who lack knowledge, leaders, food, shelter, and hope to Jesus His Son

~That the Lord may give rest and recollection to those who labor and are heavily burdened

~That all the prayers brought to God by our parish brothers and sisters may be heard by the Good Shepherd

~That the dead, who in this life looked to Jesus as their Shepherd, may dwell in the House of the Lord for years to come

Let Us Pray to the Lord
